Dear Floyd,

Hope your delay in getting here does not mean there was trouble at the blue-grass festival. Wil said there were news accounts of some carryings-on.

Scott did a lot of good work on some legal files. While he was here there was not another able-bodied man who came, which means that the heavy cabinet for the card files is still outside, still in the way when I walk and now that the dew is last longer, more in the way of walking, especially for people who are not sure-footed.

Is there any chance of your getting here with a few huskies to move it down the cellar? Scott has carried the heavy drawers down already.

Two men could probably do it safely with it strapped to the two-wheeled trucker's cart I have.

However, it is much too much for me and I can get no local help.

I'd appreciate it if this could be done soon.

After Scott left the government dumped a heavy load of dirty legal tricks on us, delaying them until it knew Jim was away for four weeks.

It means an enormous amount of extra work for me but in the end I think it will be very helpful to us in the King case.

Nothing new on the others.

The Downers, or, Downings, that is, have not sent me a copy of their hot stuff fresh from the spookery. My only interest, if you get a copy, is for the files, for the future. I'll not even read it. Statement, so-called affidavits, etc.

Best,
