

Lonnie Hudkins on Herman Kinsey; Robert Mahou; Allan Sweatt; Oswald in Mexico BW 6/24/75

After Hughes McDonald blurted out that the character Sherman Lindsay in his book is really Herman Kinsey, I phoned Lonnie to ask if he recalled Kinsey. The name sounded familiar to him. He replied immediately Port au Prince and a casino. There was then a major fire in Baltimore and he said he'd phone me back.

When he did he said he seemed to recall that Kinsey dealt with finance or that it was his specialty. Recalled description medium sized (height) heavy-set, 12-15 years older than Lonnie. Thinks he had brother Leonard.

Ron Renschbaum had phoned him to ask about a Lens Bertram report Lonnie did not recall in which Lonnie is quoted as saying that Oswald had gone to both the Russian and Cuban embassies. Lonnie said he told Ron he would have no comment, that the document had not been released. Ron said he is with New Times.

(McDonald has said that either Kinsey or "Troit" is the spitting image of Clay Shaw.)

Allan Sweatt's sister married Robert Mahou. To be held confidential.

Mahou always was CIA, all the time he was with Hughes.

In McDonald's book "Troit" is George deMehrenschildt, "Sherman ^{Lindsay} ~~Lindsay~~" is H. Kinsey.
