Broadcaster Will Call In Key Assassination Figures Oswald Will Finally Get His 'Trial;' Dallas Radio contraction of the second s

Oswald's 'trial.' With Staples are two other critics of the Warren report who have been VETERAN DALLAS broadcaster Lou Staples (center) has announced plans for probing JFK's assassination. They are Penn Jones Jr. (right), Taxes newspaper publisher, and Robert Groden, New York photographer who says blown up photos of the ssassination show riflemen on the grassy knoll above Dealey Plaza.

> "trial" for the murder of President John F. Kennedy a dozen years after the Lee Harvey Oswald is about to receive a

American Broadcasting Co. affiliated radio station in Dallas, where the Kennedy death assassination. The trial is being sponsored by KRLD, an

Station officials are working with the highly-regarded legal department of Southern Methodist University in arranging a occurred. three-judge "court" to hear the trial evidence in the assassination investigation, told TATTLER nationally-known figures who investigation will be asked to participate. were involved in the actual assassination "Tonight Show" which has been airing new Lou Staples, host of the radio station's Agency, will be invited to be "prosecutor" of the dead Oswald. Commission which investigated domestic spying activity of the Central Intelligence Commission and director of the Rockefeller DAVID BELLIN, A counsel on the Warren

Mark Lane, once an attorney for Oswald's mother, Marguerite Oswald, and later author of "Rush to Judgement," a book critical of the Warren Commission, will be invited to defend Oswald, according to Staples. which is expected to last for several weeks, The radio station plans to stage the trial, thing, "

THE NATIONAL TATTLER: A Bonus Report That Cracks The Kennedy Case Page 24

during the fall of 1975 - the 12th anniversary of the assassination.

evidence for four years. vestigating and reviewing assassination said Staples, who has himself been in-"It will follow the standard rules of law," carried live on the radio. . "This is not a publicity stunt and will not be from people still living. the prosecutor and defense attorney want "WE WILL INVITE whatever witnesses previous testimony from the 26 volumes of the Warren Report." "If they will not appear, we will read their to open it to the public in a circus-like atsit in on the trial, but the station does not plan mosphere. Qualified news reporters will be welcome to reopening of the investigation. Butler aired an editorial urging an official assassination has turned up, KRLD vice president and general manager John AS NEW EVIDENCE in the Kennedy Ω kind of work going on in Dallas," Stapics said "We want the country to know we have this anybody else. Dallas is still working on this truth to be known as much or more than assassination occurred here. We want the "Dallas is not ashamed that Be