Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Enclosed is the letter from Clif Marks, that you now have two other copies of, with the one you mislaid and found, and the second copy I forwarded to replace it. As promised, the copy enclosed is annotated with numbers of the pages from Case Closed to which each comment refers. I see that Clif has also included a map to illustrate his points about Oswald in Japan while in the Marines.

Clif's address, should you need it, is: Charles C(lif) Marks,
151 Montalvin Drive, San Pablo, California 94806-1138.

I have finished and submitted my article on Torturing the Truth to Jerry Rose and he is planning to run it in the next The Fourth Decade. Some of your quotes and parts of our conversations have been included, together with quotes from his earlier two books about you, as compared to those in this book. They are like night and day. It is another example of how he changes his mind 180° and expects the readers to do an about face with him and still trust his word.

He commented, for example, in the book about Curington, as you know, saying he was sent to jail by "the feds," who wouldn't tell Harry where he was. I made a two minute phone call to the National Locator in Washington and found out when he was convicted and of what, when he went to jail, and where, and when he got out (Oct. 1993) on parole, as well as his birth date. A two minute call. Harry the great researcher.

I am still working on getting some of the news reports that I have on tape copied for you. I haven't forgotten; it's just a matter of getting all the stuff together and finding time to do it. It includes the stuff about the King murder I told you about as well.

I think I told you that the "man from Connecticut" that Knightley spoke of to me doing a book on Oswald was George Feifer, who now has a Baltimore address. He is hooking up with Gus Russo, the "researcher" for the Front Line program on a new book. Russo says they will have some new revelations, along the lines that Oswald pulled the trigger, but that there were people who put him up to it. Sort of a combination theory so to speak.

By the way, Jerry Rose admitted that what Evica and company were up to was deplorable, though he didn't know about it until afterward. He acknowledged for what it is worth that you had reason to be angry as your letter to Evica, etc. indicate.

I will send you a copy of the note that Feifer sent to me, and his Baltimore address and phone number when I find it. I have mislaid it temporarily. I am sure that it is around somewhere.

I have received the things you have been sending. Thanks and my best as always.

Sincerely,

Dave Keck
