3 Suspects Held In Foiled Plot To Assassinate Nixon

Father, Two Sons Accused

Yemen Immigrant From Arab Nation

NEW YORK (AP) — An immigrant from the Arab nation of Yemen and his two sons were held in $100,000 bail each Sunday in connection with an alleged plot to assassinate President-elect Richard M. Nixon.

Ahmad Rageh Namer, 43, and his sons, Hussein, 20, and Abdo, 18, stood silent at their arraignment in Brooklyn Criminal Court on charges of conspiracy to assassinate Nixon, criminal solicitation, and possession of dangerous instruments and appliances.

They were arrested Saturday night by the Secret Service and police, who burst into their tenement apartment in Brooklyn. Authorities said a carbine and a rifle, 24 rounds of ammunition and three long knives were seized.

The officers had a search warrant they said was obtained after an unnamed informant told police the three men had tried to recruit him for the assassination plot because he was an expert marksman.

The informant, said to be a 36-year-old man with an Arab name, is in protective custody, police said. He reported that just after the election the Namers offered him a large sum of money to help kill Nixon, although an exact amount wasn't mentioned.

Nixon lives in New York and was due back from a Florida vacation on late Monday.

No motive for the assassination plot has been revealed, but Nixon-like Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey—has said that the United States is committed to preserve Israel and should maintain that nation's arms superiority over its Arab foes.

A Jordanian immigrant, Sirhan B. Sirhan, goes on trial Dec. 9 in the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy last June. Kennedy also advocated arms aid to Israel.

In Washington, the Secret Service said any attempt to link the plot with the assassination of Kennedy was "pure speculation at the moment."

Police said their informant told them the Namers took him to their apartment and showed him three rifles, all equipped with sniperscopes. He said he stalled them and decided to expose the conspiracy by an anonymous phone call to police.

Police traced the call to a Brooklyn bar, where they took the informant into custody. They said he seemed relieved.

Dozens of city and federal officers took part in the seizure of the Namers. To gain entry, one of them posed as the building superintendent seeking a gas leak.

The elder Namer and Abdo were seized in the apartment, police said. Hussein fled down a fire escape, but was captured five hours later on the street near the tidy building in Brooklyn's East New York district, police reported.

Acting Dist. Atty. Elliott Golden said the elder Namer, who came to the United States 13 years ago and is a naturalized citizen, has a wife and three daughters in Yemen.

"Aside from the gravity of the charges so far, there are strong ties outside the country, certainly family ties," Golden told Judge T. Vincent Quinn.

Quinn, who served in Congress with Nixon from 1949 to 1951, rejected Golden's request that the three men be held without bail.

He set a hearing for Tuesday, but Golden said he planned to present the case to a grand jury on that day.
