Inspired Tibet Raids Wind 1

By Jack Anderson

Nepal, mountanious Agency, which recruited them. are losing interest in the adventure.

After the fleece-clad Red Chinese legions crushed a reon wiry ponies into the high fastness of Nepal.

CIA agents slowly gained the confidence of the mountain fighters, known as Khampas or "warriors," and began organizinging them against the Chinese. In the cloud-capped regions of Mustang and fitted with American saddles, small arms and other equipment.

Then, out of the craggy highlands, they swooped down into Chinese military encampments in Tibet, disrupting communications and stealing supplies. This distressed the authorities, Nepalese never authorized the raids and feared Chinese retaliation.

We spoke to sources who were invited to participate in a raid on Chinese army facilities in Tibet. The Khampa leader claimed he learned his English and was trained in guerrilla tactics in the United in this country.

gence agents were used to parthey earmarked a dollar of only as "an American instituation actual their taxes for the political tion." the Khampas' mountain bivleast bloody war is winding quacs. The bright orange sup-America's least known and ply parachutes were converted ouacs. The bright orange supdown. The warring tribesmen into shirts by the Khampas paign Statement, Form 4875. and the Central Intelligence and quickly became a "Red Badge of Courage" in Tibetan refugee restaurants in Khatmandu.

But now the Tibetan refu-gees, when they gather in the volt in Tibet in 1959, the fierc-est of the Tibetan clans fled stew and cakes, are forlorn The American aid is drying up, and the Khampas have to depend on the penurious Indian intelligence services for supplies. This has so weakened them that the Nepal government, branding them nancial break with the Repubtigating who committed per-"bandits," has been able to licans in the 1976 presidential jury. The FBI has been asmove them from the border Dolpa, the Khampas were out- areas. Now when the tribesmen feel war-like, they prey on peasants instead of Chinese soldiers.

> Thus has a faraway war flared up and died down, virtually unknown to the American people, whose dollars supported it and whose secret agents encouraged it.

Washington Whirl

Campaign Finances-We recently reported that most of the Nixon scandals, from ITT to Watergate, were outgrowths in Geneva for some $140,000.

party of their choice. They can do this simply by filling out

But a spot check by IRS disbothered to inform the taxpaycomplaint that IRS, under Republihe gems. lican rule, is de-emphasizing the dollar contribution be- the celebrated ITT hearings, cause it would give the debt- the Justice Department is firidden Democrats an even fi-nancial break with the Repub-tigating who committed perelection.

1968, the prestigious Smithso- Dita Beard memo. nian Institution obtained a Agent James Elder has collection of precious 19th called upon Susan Lichtman, nian Institution obtained a Century jewelry. The national Mrs. Beard's former secretary, curators were so excited that who typed the memo. He the 1969 Smithsonian report asked whether her affidavit, promised "a spectacular jew- claiming she didn't recall typelry exhibition" and, as a ing all portions of the damagteaser, showed illustrations of ing memo, was "in your words three gem-laden brooches. But and in your language?" She instead of becoming part of a acknowledged it had been pregrand display, 150 pieces of pared for her by an ITT attorthe historic seemed so irreplaceable in to question ITT employees 1969 have been auctioned off Beverly Sincavage

We suggested that the tax- auction; indeed, the auction In past years, Indian intellipayers would be better off if catalogue identified the seller of 1973. United Feature

We asked the Smithsonian why the treasure hadn't been the Presidential Election Cam- loaned out to less fortunate museums instead of consigned for display on the bosoms of closed that only two of 29 em- rich men's wives. A spokesployees, assigned to assist tax- man explained that the collecpayers with their returns, tion had been acquired with the intention of auctioning it ers of the campaign checkoff. off, that the Smithonian had This would seem to confirm netted about $30,000, on the Democratic National Chairman Robert Strauss' com-representative assortment of Perjury Probe-A year after signed, for example, to rewrite Where's the Jewelry?-In the history of the infamous jewelry that ney. The FBI is also planning and William Merriam. But the invespaign and the corruptive some jewelry that once bemethod of financing politics longed to J. P. Morgan. The in this country. public wasn't told about the been caught in the most glar-

@ 1973, United Feature Syndicate