5 Caribbean Countries Approve Red-Bloc Trade

Jun 7/2/64 By Al Burt Chicago Daily News Service

agreed recently on the neces-a line that would lead them to sity for a "new pattern of g no atly would lead them to world trade that recognizes a greatly needed new trade developing country's need to without angering the United do business wherever it can." States and possibly upsetting

This view reflects approval equally needed aid projects. of Britain's position that trade war.

British Guiana, Jamaica, icies would be based if they Trinidad and Tobago and Bar-gained their independence. bados expressed it by saying panding markets for trade."

MIAMI, Feb. 20-The Carib-language, apparently designed bean Commonwealth coun- to see whether they can tread

Jamaica and Trinidad and with Cuba and other Commu- Tobago are indepndent now, nist countries should be devel- and the expressions by British oped both as a necessity and Guiana and Barbados were inas a tool for easing the cold tended to represent principles upon which their foreign pol-

The trade principle was one that "differences between the of eight agreed upon by these economic and social systems governments at a recent of countries should not meeting in Kingston, Jamaica. prevent developing countries The same group previously from taking advantage of ex- met last July, when they discussed the idea of a Carib-It was moderate but firm bean common market.