Invasion of Cuba Only 'Matter of Days'

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — Friday that he will be there $14 each on illegal firearms flight from Florida to Cuba, utter hoax," the international anti-Castro leader Manuel Ray, captured by British authorities on a Caribbean island after missing an announced May 20 rendezvous with his Communist-captivated homeland, vowed for Miami after being fined $14 each on illegal firearms possession charges and ordered deported.

"Sooner than most people think," said Ray. "It is a matter of days." An anti-Castro group, meanwhile, says government investigators coerced a member of their organization to deny that he made a flight from Florida to Cuba.

Cubans Back 'War Board'

MIAMI (UPI) — The Cuban Revolutionary Council headed by former Premier Manuel A. de Varona announced Friday it has thrown its support to the newly-created, five-man Cuban exile "War Board" in a new effort to topple the Fidel Castro regime. The council, in whose name the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion was launched, dissolved itself. The War Board was organized by Enido Olliva, deputy commander of the 1961 invasion. Cuban exiles, meanwhile, reported a 250-man Castro militia unit defected last April and is operating with rebel forces.

Stung by a Pentagon statement that branded reports of insisted that the flight was the flight a "complete and made."
