Aprily INVERTING AND 123 14 4 astro Clash

MIAMI (P) - Exiles said among equipment left inside Wednesday night that com- Cuba.

mandos shot it out with Fifiltrating men and arms into aboard the boat, were rethe island early Tuesday.

"The encounter lasted 10 tack. or 12 minutes," said a jointcommunique by Commandos L and the Revolutionary Recovery Insurrectional Movement, two anti-Castro groups military objective" in Cub: that have joined forces.

exiles fired 42 rounds from was seized by U.S. authori 20-millimeter cannons and ties Monday. 450 to 500 rounds from rifles and automatic weapons, the activity largely to the Washcommunique said.

when enemy fire ceased." Fidel Castro regime. There was no mention of casualties on either side.

report said.

disclosed base, the communique added. Since it was low on fuel it shifted its route to the Florida keys, the communique said.

The 30-foot arms-laden boat was seized by U.S. authorities at Sugar Loaf Key Tuesday. Four Cubans and an American, who identified himself as Don Baker of Fort Lauderdale, were held and questioned.

The communique did not give details of the infiltration operation. Explosives ind radios were reported

A spokesman said other del Castro forces after in-arms, which were found tained for use in case of at

A plane with four bombs that exiles said were to be dropped on "an importan coinciding with opening o During this encounter the the Washington OAS meeting

The exile colony geared its ington meeting, hoping for It said the battle "ended severe sanctions against the

Dozens of exile laders, including Manuel Ray, foiled The exile expedition was by U.S. authorities recently attacked near Bay of Cadiz in a second attempt to reach Key off northern Cuba, the Cuba to rebuild the anti-Castro underground, were re-Afterward, the exile boat ported in Washington. They headed back toward its un-were reported carrying on a massive OAS lobby.

> As exiles marched in Washington urging maximum penalties for Castro, a group of Miami demonstrated in front of the Mexican consulate. Mexico has remained a neutral attitude with respect to Cuba.