

War Talk OKLA CITY TIMES On Cuba 5/21/64 Mounting

MIAMI (AP) — Talk of impending military action against Fidel Castro gained momentum Tuesday in this exile capital. But plans, if any, were shrouded in secrecy.

Officials of anti-Castro groups, while not denying that something was in the air, were tight-lipped in contrast with the open-talk situation prior to the ill-fated 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion.

They spoke of a long guerrilla war, sabotage, infiltration and hopes for defection of Castro's armed forces.

Leader Returns

Rogelio Cisneros, newly named chief in exile of the Revolutionary Junta (JURE), returned from a conference in Puerto Rico with Manuel Ray, who has promised to be fighting inside Cuba by May 20, Independence Day.

Cisneros was silent about his talk with Castro's former Havana underground head, now designated JURE's chief inside Cuba. Ray founded JURE.

Speech Mailed Out

Another activist group, Revolutionary Recovery Movement (MRR), reported it is mailing out English translations of a speech by its head, Bay of Pigs leader Manuel Artime, predicting "a long, hard war full of blood and sacrifice."

Artime did not say when he would start his war.
