Former Foreign Service Employe Tells Of Cuba

Castro was lying when he gave the impression the rebellion against Cuba was a typical communist uprising, a foreign service employe told the Rotary Club yesterday.

John Joseph Mullin, a foreign service employe now living in Kensington explained to the Rotarians how Castro came into the Cuban picture, what threat he represents, and what the United States is doing to control Castro.

"Cuba does not pose a military threat to this nation," Mullins said, "the danger lies in political indoctrination of other countries."

Mullins also explained to the group the methods being used to stiffen resistance in those countries where there is turmoil and unrest.

The program was arranged by George Sanner. Mullins was introduced by Dr. Riley Housewright and the Rotary gift of a copy of linoleum cut, made by Jack Davis, was presented to Mullins by Charles Price.

President J. Ralph Austin conducted the meeting and introduced visiting Rotarians, Paul McAuliffe, Silver Spring; Ralph H. Beachley, Friendsville; the Rev. W.F. Bittiko, Aberdeen; Grover Michael, Eustis, Fla.; Howard Hubbard, Arbutus.

Other visitors were Dr. Ira Baldwin, Madison, Wis., guest of Dr. Housewright; Elmer E. Eshleman Jr., guest of his father; George Stevens, College Park, guest of George Wood; Don Stickler and Dick Burgee, guests of James McSherry.
