Viet Nam Resolution

congressional resolution on Viet proud of" the part he had in its Nam signed by President Johnson on a hot August afternoon in 1964 has rocketed back into the limelight in snow-covered Washington. Exactly what does it

In one form or another, the resolution has, like an undercurrent, swept beneath the great decisions and debates over Viet Nam the past five days.

It was used by President Johnson as guidance in his decision to resume bombing of targets in North Viet Nam.

Foreign Relations Committee House of Representatives of the passage.

Its repeal is being sought by Sen. Wayne Morse, D- Ore, persistent critic of the Johnson administration's handling of the Viet Nam situation.

Johnson requested the resolution shortly after the Gulf of Tonkin incidents in which North Vietnamese PT boats attacked American destroyers.

Here is the text of the joint resolution passed Aug. 10, 1964, "to promote the maintenance of international peace and security WASHINGTON (AP) - The who said he was "not at all United States of America in Congress assembled,

Whereas naval units of the Communist regime in Viet Nam, in violation of the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of international law, have deliberately and repeatedly attacked United States naval vessels lawfully present in international waters and have thereby created a serious threat to international peace;

Whereas these attacks are part of a deliberate and systematic campaign of aggression that the Communist regime in It was cited by Chairman in Southeast Asia:"

North Viet Nam has been wagResolved by the Senate and ing against its neighbors and the nations joined with them in

> THE POST, Frederick, Maryland Monday, February 7, 1966

Page 9

Haunts United States

freedom;

Whereas the United States is assisting the peoples of Southeast Asia to protect their freedom and has no territorial, military or political ambitions in that area, but desires only that these peoples should be left in peace to work out their own destinies in their own way;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

The Congress approves and supports the determination of chief, to take all necessary any member or protocol state of phia Pa., on May 10, 1908.

the collective defense of their measures to repel any armed the Southeast Asia Collective attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression.

Sec. 2. The United States regards as vital to its national interest and to world peace the maintenance of international peace and security in Southeast Asia. Consonant with the constitution of the Charter of the United Nations and in accordance with its obligation under the Southeast Asia Collective Defense Treaty, the United States is, therefore, prepared, as the President determines, to take all necessary steps, including the President, as commander in the use of armed force, to assist Mother's Day was in Philadel-

Defense Treaty requesting assistance in defense of its free-

Sec. 3. This resolution shall expire when the President shall determine that the peace and security of the area is reasonably assured by international conditions created by action of the United Nations or otherwise, except that it may be terminated earlier by concurrent resolution of the Congress.

First formal observance of