Hanoi Rejoices in Streets and President's Palace

HANOI, North Vietnam, Jan. 24 (Agence France-Presse) -The news of the cease-fire acspeakers that only a few weeks North Vietnam's leadership. ago warned that American bombers were coming.

For more than an hour, the cord was heard on the streets made a few hours earlier by of Hanoi this morning, broad-Premier Pham Van Dong at a cast by the street-corner loud-special 20-minute meeting of Leaders Meet a

'Struggle' Continues

announcement was repeated at agreement and on the texts to the ceremony, which began as five-minute intervals, with patri pursue our struggle to complete day was breaking. Among them Linh, an official in the Infor-ing with a few dozen passers-by accord as "a great victory of the late Ho Chi Minh, whose lated him, the Premier said, and cyclists under one of the long, hard and invincible slogan, "Nothing Is More Preloudspeakers."

Tonight, Hanoi's loudspeakers. "But I want to hear it again," people for independence, lib-Liberty," can be seen on dis-ers began braodcasting the full

Children chanted: "Hoa binh! Politburo and Government, with a closed collar. Hoa binh!" But a young woman They met at the presidential commented that the "Peace! palace, together with members ing a khaki suit with closed usual so that people all over Peace!" they were chanting of the diplomatic corps, to bid about was not complete.

The Premier, who was weartions to read more slowly than ing a khaki suit with closed usual so that people all over collar, appeared too overcome the country could feel the full about was not complete.

Leaders Meet at Dawn

North Vietnam's leaders hugged each other, smiled and ing car. "Now we must lean on the shook hands vigorously during five-minute intervals, with patriotic tunes played between.

"That's enough; we've heard it," said a young soldier standit," said a young soldier standit of the revolutionary work carried were the 83-year-old President, mation Department of the revolutionary work carried were the 83-year-old President, mation Department of the Foreign Ministry, stepped forPresident, Nguyen Long Bang.

He was a close companion of To a diplomat who congratu-said a young woman holding a erty and peace."

bunch of flowers. "I am happy."

"We are full of enthusiasm and very happy," he added.

the front," another woman said.

The Premier, who spoke tegist, Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap, with a specific process. Minister, the top military stra-day. "He can come back now. It's without a written text and with funny; I'm surprised. We lost frequent displays of emotion, the First Secretary of the Hanoi radio, which planned to the habit of thinking that peace was interrupted by loud applace from members of the elegant in a navy blue suit hours. It was said that another than the same time and the same

"We must go on until the Nguyen Duy Trinh, who left departing Foreign Minister country is reunified," she said for Paris by a special Soviet asked if he had any final adplane shortly after 8 A.M. to vice. With an arm around Mr. Trinh's shoulders, the Premier walked with him down the steps of the palace to the wait-

Official Kisses Premier

At one point, Mrs. Nguyen text of the agreement that is Defense to be signed in Paris on Staur-

At the same time it was nouncers were under instruc-