

5/7/76--TIPPIT MURDER/ POLICE TAPES

I was glad to get your letters saying that Rod had gone over the tapes and detected three voices. Without knowing more, this seems to confirm my analysis, that there had to be three, with Benavides first, Bowley second, Callaway third. I just noted an error I made. When I first checked CE 705, I thought it was for only one channel and included no Tippit broadcasts. I was wrong, and when I checked the CE 705 version of this series of broadcast, I found that whoever made this transcription also noted that two voices were involved in the original broadcast at 1:16. This also supports my analysis of when Bowley (I presume) broke in after BENAVIDES. Nothing earthshaking, but thought you'd want for files.

Best, HR
