Witness in Kennedy 'Plot' Says N.B.C. Tried to Wreck Inquiry

NEW ORLEANS, June 20 would never get me extradited Attorney Jim Garrison's investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy said today that members of a National Mr. Sheeridan had defense [of Mr. Shaw]."

gation into the assassination of President Kennedy said today that members of a National Broadcasting Company news team had sought his help "to wreck the Garrison investigation."

At a news conference in Mr. Garrison's office, the witness, Perry R. Russo, said the N.B.C. team had alternated promises and threats to persuade him to appear on a television show last night about the Garrison investigation.

On the program, N.B.C. said, "Russo's answers to a series of questions indicate, in the language of the polygraph operator, 'deceptive-criteria.'" The network said Mr. Garrison know this.

Leonard Gurvich, a private investigator, who said he supervised the test, said that Mr. Russo said.

Leonard Gurvich, a private investigator, who said he supervised the test, said that Mr. Russo did not fail the test, He said the polygraph operator was unable to get specific readings because Mr. Russo "was highly nervous" during the two test attempts.

Clay L. Shaw, a retired New Orleans businessman, is under indictment on charges of conditions of the said that Townley should act as a go-between between Russo and spiring to kill President Kennedy.

Mr. Russo, 25 years old an lawyers ask him the right quesinsurance salesman, told a grand jury he had attended a voice his doubts about identifyparty in September, 1963, at the home of David W. Ferrie, a former airline pilot, After the party, he said, he heard Mr. This is the same man who told Townley it was now diffiparty, he said, he heard Mr. Shaw plot President Kennedy's death,

Mr. Ferrie and Oswald are now dead,

Mr. Russo said that Walter

Sheridan.

Orleans businessman, is under that Townley should act as a indictment on charges of conspiring to kill President Kentheders and "President Kentheders" and "President

Mr. Russo said that Walter Sheridan of the N.B.C. news staff had offered to help him if he cooperated. He said:
"Sheridan offered to set me cooperated. He said:
"Sheridan offered to set me up in California, protect my job were "out to wreck the Garand guarantee that Garrison rison investigation."