THE AMERICAN MILITARY: TARGET OF A SMEAR

Who Faked The My Lai Massacre? And Why?

"The smear against the American serviceman, in his own newspapers and by his own politicians, has become an even greater threat than the murders of the Viet Cong."

So says World War II flying Ace, Brigadier General Robert L. Scott Jr. He is convinced that the stories of massacres and mass murders by our own troops are just that: stories. While the incredible butchery of the Viet Cong is deliberately ignored.

"The Communist enemy is not just in the rice paddies of Vietnam," General Scott says. "He can be found in this country, leading demonstrations of students, organizing cells on our military bases, and spreading false stories in our press."

This secret attack against the American military, General Scott believes, is nothing less than an attack against America. "The Communist fifth column knows it must disarm us before it can destroy us. Right now, it is succeeding!"

To learn the truth about this Communist Big Lie — and what you can do to expose it — be sure to hear General Scott at
