CHICAGO SUN-TIMES, Mon., Jan. 31, 1972

earing

rett B. Trapnell, the skyjacker shot Saunday by the FBI, was under guard in a hospital prison ward Sunday recovering from bullet wounds and awaits ing court products IMhars could end his checkered career with a death selfANe.31 1972 He was to be arraigned Monday before a U.S. magistrate on charges of air piracy and kidnaping. If convicted, he could be sentenced to death on recommendation of the jury.

18

Trapnell, a native of Waltham, Mass., who lived in Miami, spent nearly two hours In Queens General Hospital Saturday undergoing surgery for wounds of the hand and shoulder.

He also had suffered a superficial cut on the right arm, inflicted by the razor blade he used to cut away the simulated cast that concealed his automatic pistol.

Trapnell, 34, a formor mental patient who is a suspect in six Canadian bank robberies and has a long record of brushes with the law in the United States, held up the crew of a Trans World Airlines jetliner en route from Los Angeles to New York.

At New York, the skyjacker allowed its 93 passengers to

NEW YORK (UPI) - Gar- leave but held its seven crew members hostage while he recited a frequently changing list of demands.

> He wanted clemency for the hijacking and a pardon for a previous crime; the release from prison of Angela Davis and George A., Padilla, a "the agents shot Trapnell when friend who is being held in the "dropped his guard" for a Dallas for armed robbery; moment.

$306,800 in cash and political asyluin in some European country, which he said must be arranged ly President Nixon.

At Kennedy Airport, a relief crew was allowed to board the plane. Included were two FBI agents in TWA uniform. One of