Dear A.I.,

When I left home, for Dallas, a week ago I'd expected to see you by now.

First Ray pulled that crazy caper of trying to beat the dogs through 20-foot brambles on rough mountains. This kept Jim Tague's phone ringing off the hook until the wee-est of the small hours. I stayed with him.

Then there were WFAA TV interviews and radio shows, as you may have heard.

Next ABC-TV wanted me to go to New York to do Good Morning America. Initially I declined because I'd gone to Dallas to get evidence for one of my Freedom of Information suits and wanted to complete that.

Beginning with Bob Sirkin and ending with my lawyer I was persuaded to change my mind. They were right so I did leave Dallas in some haste Tuesday afternoon.

There is no reason other than these I did not call you.

I was tired when I left Dallas. So tired when I got home that before supper yesterday I fell asleep at my desk.

The clipping on "The Trial Of Lee Harvey Oswald" is particularly helpful. Thanks for it and the one on the sketches. I didn't even have time to get papers when I was there!

I know what you mean of how hot it was for June. I felt the 100 degrees. I was out walking in it. Jim's home was comfortable, though. (They are great folks.)

God willing I'll be there agin and I'll not expect Ray to break out again. Then I'll look forward to thanking you in person.

I did not know that Judge Brown Jr. was your lawyer. When you speak to him again please tell him that I am depositing all my papers on this in the University of Wisconsin system, where they will be under the direction of a responsible professor, not one of the nuts. I'd welcome for this any of his dad's records of which he may be willing to provide copies.

If he has any doubts about this he can by-pass me and send them directly to Professor David Wrono, University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point, Wisc., 54481. I have no personal interest in them and I would not now write about them. Prof. Wrono, I'm sure, will pay the xeroxing costs. I guarantee him on this.

Personally I welcome your informativ comments on the personalities.

If in haste, many thanks again,

Sincerely,
