THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

24 April 1975

Dear Mr. Weisberg;

Thank you for responding to my letter so quickly. I would be more than happy to help you.

As far as William Bradford Huie is concerned, I have exhausted the Georgetown library's periodical resources and I was unable to find any material or references for articles written by anyone on the Floyd case. Georgetown's collection is limited to periodicals and NY Times and Washington Post microfilms, and I was unable to find anything in these sources.

My next move is to go to the Library of Congress on the off-chance that perhaps they have references for materials contained in local newspapers. I hope that Huie wrote an article in a newspaper in DuVal County or perhaps in Dallas or some bigger city newspaper.

I have also written to Huie himself asking if he recalls any such article and where I may find it. I am certain of one thing: It was not written in Collier's or any periodical.

I'll be in touch after I follow through on these plans.

Sincerely yours,

Ray Trijani
