Dear both,

Using some pre-WWII Xmas-card ~~xxx~~ envelopes is as close as we are coming to cardings, but let it convey the spirit.

This brief note is to let you - and nobody else- know that the Archives has ~~now~~ supplied me with another 16 withheld pages on Vallee and other stuff.

Going on their record of the past, there is a good chance they'll make it available to all they can, especially where they can anticipate misuse - and you know who I mean.

From first indications, their "review" is designed to throw me some sops, stuff they had a right to expect I'd sue for or they knew I planned to. Where it is good, they generally do what they think they can live with by calling it to the attention of others, especially nuts and whores.

This does tell use more-that he was psycho, potentially dangerous, that my first tip was precisely accurate - this did begin with the Secret Service.

He had real problems besides his politics and a silver plate from Korea. Indications of homosexuality and what is called "femineity" besides what was first diagnosed as schizo-paranoia and then diminished.

He did have more than an M-1, of which he had 2. The SS contrived a cover interview in advance of 11/2/63, based on their tip, carefully (and properly) hidden. My hunch on the task force is 100%. They shadowed him for three days until he gave them the excuse, that wrong turn. And he was then getting about $200 weekly in pay.

Hope you are well and at least relatively prosperous.

Our best,
