Obligation to Cuba Not Reing Fulfilled, Is View

OAS Agreements Cited of college leave Cuba" than ex-ist in Dade County, Fla., which by Seminar Speaker

The president of the Miami based Truth About Cuba Committee told an audience at International House Tuesday night that the United States "has failed to fulfill the obligation it has to Cuba under agreements made through the Organization for American States (OAS)."

Speaking at a seminar dealing speaking at a seminar dealing he said, was due in part to paswith the past and present situation in Cuba and U.S. policy toward that country, Life V
toward that country, Life V
Manarara said that Cuba, under Castro, has made a shambles
of the OAS and has even trained

"toward revolution in the said, was due in part to passive resistance of the Cubans still in Cuba and the exocus of rom Cuba.

FOOD RATIONING
Underscoring Manarara's thesmen to "forment revolution in other countries. He said the U.S. should take a greater concern in the affairs of the Cubans today, John F. Cubans coordinator for Cuban He said Castro-controlled Cuba Affairs, U.S. State Department, people "have been maligned prospered, since food rationing and maliciously lied about" to is at an all time high. the point that most Americans think of Cuba and Cubans in part as a myth.

those myths. Cuba before Cas-diplomatic break between the tro was "miserable, under two countries." developed, illiterate country." Rounding out the seminar dis-However, he pointed out such conditions exist in all countries Criffith of the Tulane Univerof the world.

million or roughly 20 per cent technical - type manufacturing."
of the population have applied He pointed out that many to enter the U.S.

DISCRIMINATION

suffering and degradation to base at Guantanamo Bay.

human dignity.

The seminar was spons

background of the exiles is Relations Association and the high. He pointed out that more Young Men's Business Club of exiles with "four or five years New Orleans.

he said is above the national average literacy level.

Comparing discrimination in Cuba on a before-after Castro basis, Manrara said: "Before Castro, the Negroes thought of themselves as Cubans who by chance were Negro. Now, they think of themselves as Negroes who by chance are Cuban."

The "debacle of Red Cuba," is concerning the plight of spends millions of dollars on said, "When Castro came to propaganda in the Western power he had the supposition propaganda in the Western large segment of the Cuban Hemisphere, but the U.S. is large segment of the Cuban "always singled out as the people as well as the U.S. and the rest of the world." He said enemy that must be destroyed." the rest of the world." He said Manrara stated that the Cuban the regime has survived, not

He stated it was Castro, by his actions toward the Cuban people and American officials in He said he was out to dispell Cuba, that brought about the

the world.

Sity history department, said But, he said, what Cuba was that the transition of Cuba before Castro can be understood from a small sugar - growing only by those who fled the coun-country to one dotted with large try after he came to power in plantation holdings brought January, 1959. He said that to about a cataclysmic change date, 250,000 Cubans have left in the country. He said this their homeland, and another 1.5 paved the way to "large scale,"

Cubans today resent Americans for their intervention in the war But, he added, the United for independence in 1898, for States only admits 50,000 refugees a year. Those that stay behind, he said, are exposed to leally—and for maintaining a uman dignity.

The seminar was sponsored Manrara said the educational by International House, Foreign