Dear Mr. Morgan:

Many thanks for your recent letter. Indeed, your letter of March 23, 1967 to Mr. Garrison was received--- you used the alias Don Morgan at that time. Per your instructions, a personal ad was placed in the Berkeley Barb, but perhaps it was placed too late.

I share your suspicion that Richard Nagell is telling the truth. I don't know if you ever get this way, but if so possibly we could compare notes. In the meantime, I do know that his siter is actively pursuing his case. She is:

Mrs. Eleanore G. Gambert

I am sure she will be happy to hear from you if there is any light you can shed that will help Richard.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Turner:

Last summer I sent a brief letter to JMa Garrison concerning what I thought might be a small lead in the assassination plot: the curious case of Richard Nagell (re your article January Ramparts). Because of my uncertainty as to Nagell's role, as well as ignorance as to how well known was his story, I did not elaborate on my relationship with him (although there really isn't too much to tell, except that he succeeded a number of times in scaring the hell out of me; I think he was "recruiting" for someone).

I understand from your article that Richard has filed a writ of habeas corpus. Where can I obtain a copy of his statement? My curiosity (an ex-newspaperman) plus the nagging suspicion that he might be telling the truth compels me to check out what he has said with what I knew of his whereabouts and activities in 1963.

In fine, if you know of anyone who is pursuing his case I would be glad to be of any assistance in any way I can. Hell, I like the guy.

Sincerely,

Bob Morgan
