

Hyattstown, Maryland 20734
August 23, 1966

Mr. Julius Fransden
United Press International
National Press Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Fransden:

Although I have no reason to presume that UPI will not be consistent, will not continue to ignore the first book that says everything that all the subsequent ones do and much more that they do not, the book that opened this subject and made it "acceptable", I nonetheless send you the enclosed for your information.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg