

A Version of Nixon Role

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California's top appellate judge believes President Nixon himself gave the orders which led to the Watergate affair.

Anderson, in an interview with Newsweek magazine, said the orders probably were of a general nature and that Nixon may not have known of the illegal methods used to carry them out.

The appellate judge said the President did not use the words "authorize" or "approve" but that he gave the "go" signal.

Anderson said he had reviewed the evidence and believed that Nixon was the one who gave the go signal. He said he believed that Nixon was the one who gave the go signal. He said he believed that Nixon was the one who gave the go signal.
