Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Enclosed is my order for two of your books and the money order to pay for one of them. I definitely will buy the book about Oswald in New Orleans whenever you notify me that it is ready. In fact, if it is published now, please send it to me instead of Documentary Whitewash; which, in that case, I would pay for later.

I loved your suggestion that perhaps Lovelady was wearing Oswald's shirt at the time of the picture. I wish you would print the picture that Mrs. Lovelady offered to send showing Mr. Lovelady in a shirt like Oswald's.

I am also enclosing a copy of a letter I sent to CBS which you might be interested in.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Grace P. Vale

Dear Mrs. Vale,

Thank you for your interesting letter of 9/9. What you ordered will be sent you as soon as available. The New Orleans book will, I hope, soon be out.

Mrs. Lovelady never kept her promise. I sent Penn Jones to see them. He showed him the shirt. We will be hearing more of this. They asked for $5,000. I would not pay for evidence if I had the money, which I do not.

Your letter to CBS is very good and interesting. You have followed the case closely, as I wish more people had!

Your quotation of Brehm from the Dallas Times-Herald of 11/22/63 interests me very much. It fits nicely into other things I have and will include in the sixth book in my series. I'd very much appreciate a photocopy if you can spare it. Mr. Brehm apparently is afraid. I have some very interesting things that confirm him, as you will see before too long.

Again, many thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
