Dear Hal,

Thanks so much for your letter. I waited before writing because I thought you might be coming to Washington again.

The divorce would go through the Virginia courts and as you say good lawyers are the best paid ones in most cases. I doubt if my Mother's case would be of interest because there is not alot of money involved or anything. A friend suggested we call the Arlington legal counselor and have an interview. I guess that would be the first step.

I appreciated all you wrote in your letter, it's all very true. I'll write again soon and let you know how things are going and when I can come. I doubt if it'll be for a spell. Many thanks Cindy
