KENNEDY ASSASSINATION

Q. Before the Kennedy assassination did you meet Harvey Oswald?

A. Yes. I had ^{encountered} ~~an interview with~~ Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas at the end of August or in the first days of September of 1963, a few weeks before Kennedy was assassinated. I was asked to go to Dallas at the request of my contact with the intelligence service in this country, Maurice Bishop. We fixed the meeting downtown in Dallas in a bank or an insurance company building, I can't remember exactly. Maurice came with a young man, he seemed to be very quiet, a very strange and pre-occupied person. Shortly afterwards I recognised him from his photograph in the newspaper, he was without any doubt the Kennedy assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald.

I have no doubts that the person who was with Maurice Bishop was Lee Harvey Oswald because I had been trained to identify individuals I met by noting their physical characteristics.

Q. Do you think that later in 1963 that Maurice Bishop was sufficiently against Kennedy to be a physical threat to him?

A. ^{Look} Well... Maurice was ^{at odds} ~~out of~~ sympathy with Kennedy. He believed that Kennedy was a man without experience, surrounded by unqualified advisors, ^{and that they} ~~who~~ were leading this country ^{into trouble.} ~~towards a difficult~~ situation. Following the Bay of Pigs' fiasco and then after the missile crisis, Bishop considered it was a tremendous mistake for the United States to make the agreement which Kennedy concluded with Khrushchev. It ^{has been} ~~is~~ suggested ^{here} ~~in this country~~ that there was a conspiracy against Kennedy. Maurice Bishop had many opportunities to take part in ~~this~~ ^{such} a conspiracy because he was an operative whose professional business regularly involved "dirty work" activities, and he believed the best thing for ^{the} ~~his~~ country was to depose Kennedy and his advisers.

Q. Do you think that Bishop ^{was perhaps} ~~was~~ part of a conspiracy to kill Kennedy?

A. It is ^{highly} ~~highly~~ possible that he took part in the conspiracy to kill Kennedy, ^{particularly} ~~specially~~ if we bear in mind he asked me to ask a relative of mine, my cousin Guillermo Ruiz, who was working at the Cuban embassy in Mexico, if he was willing - for money - to declare that Lee Harvey Oswald had been there in Mexico.

On that occasion I asked Bishop whether or not it was true that Lee Harvey Oswald had been in Mexico, and Bishop told me "It does not matter.

It does not matter ^{at odds} whether or not he was really there. The important thing is for Guillermo Ruiz a member of the Cuban Diplomatic service, to ^{into trouble} allege that he was in Mexico". ^{like} The impression

I got, ^{of the case} as well as other people who ^{have} analyzed this aspect, is that Maurice Bishop was trying to use this as a device to lay the blame for Kennedy's death on the Cuban government.

Q. If it is true your story about Oswald and the man from the CIA is sensational, but nobody has been able to find that man Bishop you have mentioned. That seems rather unconvincing.

at odds

A. Maurice Bishop was a brilliant man. He specialised in what they call "dirty jobs". He was a man who never left traces, always avoided leaving a trail. ~~He~~ ^{like} taught me how not to leave traces.

The Last time I saw him ~~it~~ was in 1973.

I have given all the information I ~~had~~ ^{have} to the Senate^s Authorities and the House of Representatives in order to ^{help} find him. I do believe that ~~if~~ ^{they} investigate ~~properly~~ ^{thoroughly} they will find enough facts leading to identify Bishop. ^{However,} it is not easy because he always used undercover names and always travelled with phony passports. He spoke fluent French and Spanish as well as, of course, English. On one occasion I found out he was travelling ^{on} a Belgian passport.

Q. Who do you think killed President Kennedy?

A. Kennedy was a great President, but a man without experience. He made two great mistakes. The failure of ^{the} Bay of Pigs, ^{at} where he deserted the Cubans in their struggle against Castro and the October ^{missile} crisis in 1962, when by his agreement with Krushchev - he abandoned and betrayed the anti-Castro Cubans. This caused great difficulty within Kennedy's administration, ^{The CIA was a} which led to a confrontation ^{with} between people at the CIA and Kennedy and many people were sacked as a result. I basically think that the CIA - the alienation of certain officials in the CIA, provoked great difficulty between Castro and Kennedy - with, for example, the CIA's efforts to kill Castro; ^{I think} and that some of its officers were involved in a conspiracy to kill President Kennedy.
