

10/6/69

Dear Hal,

Got a new ribbon for this ancient machines. As soon as I can take it, for it is always exasperating, I'll be changing it and my letters will be less difficult to read.

Got the Mrs. Powers book today. Many thanks. I'll read it next. I've heard nothing from the guy doing his. Paul hasn't, so I presume you also have not.

Soon Paul will have the Frazier and Finck testimony. I've read Frazier and find nuggets in it, a few new things and articulation of what he knew but was not explicit. I hear nothing from N.O. and do not regard the silence as a good sign. If you've heard anything, please let me know.

My apologies for not mailing the other enclosures earlier. There is nothing urgent and our finances are such I'm even economizing on stamps.

But finally agreed to file suits for me, but he's done nothing about them save notify the AG. More than a month ago he had a phone call asking him to hold off a couple of days, until there was chance for a letter to reach him. He phoned me last week and we have a date for Wed., to go over this. But he'll hardly be prepared then.

Lil's progress on the CCUP add is slow. She about halfway through now. As soon as it is completed, I'll be sending Paul a copy that he'll copy and return. At the present rate, it'll be 350 pp anyway. With so many pages added and not represented in the serialim numbering, impossible to tell.

If you or Paul suggested getting the London Sunday Times mag of 10/1/66, I've asked someone who may be able to do it.

Best to everyone.

Sincerely,

And thanks for the book. Think I'll start it before going to sleep.
