

10/23/70

Dear Hal,

About to leave on some errands and to pick Lil up when I found this unmailed stuff on the bottom of a stack, so here it is, whatever it is.

I believe it includes a letter to Flammonde. He has not answered it. But on a talk show in NYC he said Bud has interested him in a book on the Ray case that he may or may not do. I'll have a tape soon.

Nothing new from Paul. I'm deeply worried about him. He probably doesn't think so. But there is nothing but dishonesty in this work and I cannot conceive of Paul as dishonest. This will trouble him the rest of his life.

If he has made any real response to any of the criticisms he has gotten, I've not been told. He sent me a copy of his brief answer to Gary. It was unsatisfactory in every way. He sent something to Sylvia which she excerpted and tore him up about all over again. I think that is all of it, and that is damned little. He just ignored mine.

I sent Jim something several weeks ago, but I couldn't read my writing and am not sure I had the correct address to begin with. He has not responded. How is this affecting him, if you know?

Somewhere in the back of my mind is the notion that somebody once made a chronology of everything relating to LHO. While I cannot now do anything with it, I am interested in the period as soon as he repatriated. If you have access to such a thing, my first interest is in the week beginning 6/15/70, including everything everyone said about him.

What's with you and everyone else out there?

Sincerely,
