

Dear Hal,

7/30/92

In addition to all else that keeps me too busy today's mail was overwhelming and IBM under new doctor's orders that I am now violating, to do no work after supper. Part of their approach to my sleep problem.

I've read you letter of the 25th and skimmed the interesting enclosures. In time I'll get to them. Now for one. You did not source it. I did not get the "applause" books book, if it is from that.

When I'll can we'll send you the ABR article and the letter I wrote the editor.

She is too busy now working on taxes for which extensions of time were granted.

I know nothing about what happened at the AARC board meeting. I've not heard from Lesar about it.

You did send me Bertelet's piece and I also get the Progressive.

On the ANA, I am writing when I can find the time but completion is not close.

I've accumulated too much to copy and send but I think that what I'll get on paper will do you more good.

Excuse the rush. And thanks!

Best,

Hal Verb

Dear Hal:

I've gathered together a couple of articles, magazine items and related pieces which I think you should have.

One thing I know you'll find interesting is the letters response to the Chip Berlet article in the "Progressive" magazine which caused quite a stir. (I believe I previously sent you a copy of Berlet's original article when I wrote you last time).

By the way you mentioned in your last letter to me an article which appeared in the "American Historical Review" on Stone's JFK movie. Could I have a copy of it and any reply you may have sent them? Also, I do not have anything on the AMA defense of the autopsy and your reply to this. I'd very much appreciate copies of whatever you have on this.

Jerry Rose sent me a letter that he was going to attend a Board of Directors meeting in Washington of Lesar's AARC group from June 19 to June 21. Have you heard from Lesar about what took place? I am on Lesar's mailing list but he never sends any information out on what his group is doing.

As you can see from the enclosures there will be another annual JFK conference in Dallas, Texas in late October. I plan on attending and a Cable TV station has invited me to appear on a program to discuss the convention right after I return. This is the same station that had me on TV over a month ago.

I guess that's about all the news I have ~~to~~<sup>for</sup> now. I hope everything is going well for you. Do write when you get the chance.

Best,

Hal
