#11	5/18/95	Hal Verb interviews Jay Davis , California researcher. He discusses the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle and the photographic evidence implicating Oswald as the "Lone Assassin." Other topics are also discussed.
#12	6/15/95	Hal Verb interviews Ian Griggs . Griggs, British researcher and writer on the JFK case, discusses how the international media, press, etc., viewed the assassination. Griggs has published a compilation of these reports in a single volume, and comments on his work.
#13	7/20/95	Hal Verb reviews four recent books on the JFK assassination . The books are Oswald's Tale , by Norman Mailer; Never Again , by Harold Weisberg; Oswald and the CIA , by John Newman; The Golden Age Is In Us , by Alexander Cockburn. Cockburn's book devotes only 21 pages to the JFK case but defends the Warren Commission.  Reviewer Verb hits hard on the Mailer and Cockburn books.

Mr. Verb, in this final program in this series, discusses the Assassination Records Review Board and how it has functioned. Will it succeed or is it another whitewash?  Dr. Aguilar also discusses a reply by Dr. Wecht to a hitherto unknown memo by Dr. Boswell.
