

Hal Verb
211 Liberty St., # 8
San Francisco, CA 93114

1/20/00

Dear Hal,

41 Glad to get your 1/15 and your home address, which I never had. Thanks.

We are snowed in today, I'm not able to cope with that any more and do not try, so we both had to make new appointments for those to which we could not get and I finished the first chapter of what I'll write about Kurtz. ²² of these pages. And in the convoluted hours we now keep, it is supper time and when I do in the snow not ~~do~~ drive/myself I have to be at the dialysis center at 6:30 a.m. tomorrow. With most of my local friends also seniors or people who work daily.

I found my Kurtz ARRB New Orleans testimony, if you can reach Backus in time to save him that work. And I would like his impression of Kurtz and of his testimony. I found it strange that he would say that he saw Oswald and he did not tell the FBI and Banister together when there is no real reason to imagine that they knew each other. Only an assortment of fictions, most generated by Banister's former secretary who was having a fight with his wife over possession of his files.

I have no address for Joe.

Time to get cooking. So to speak!

Thanks and best,

Hal