Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you so much for forwarding Whitewash to me so promptly. Enclosed, is my check. I hope the sales skyrocket. There is - and has been - too much "whitewash" on many incidents and I wish more people had your fortitude and courage.

Like Mrs. Weisberg, my ancestors fought in the Revolution, too. They came to America in the 1650s but I'm afraid we have become too complacent. It takes our "immigrants" to fully appreciate what we had. Perhaps it's because we have nothing to use as a comparison.

Again, thanks and good luck.

Lillian E. Weber

Harold Weisberg.

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Will you kindly let me know the price of a paperback copy of "White Wash." Would it be convenient to hold a copy for me until I can get a check to you? I'm sure thousands of requests are pouring in.

You were just great on Alan Burke's program last night. Everyone I talked to today (and I was to a dinner) couldn't seem to stop talking about you and were so for you. We are all hoping you will be on Mr. Burke's program again in the near future to explain why Mr. Ruby is apparently going to get away with silencing H. D. Oswald. "Something smells in Texas and D.C."

It delighted me to hear you put those three publicity-seeking lawyers ~~to~~ rout. I have nothing against lawyers in general. They are necessary evils but when they get smart-alky, it warms the heart to see them slapped down. You were great.

I have never believed that case was as cut-and-dried as we were led to believe. Too many discrepancies between the actual assassination and the Warren Commission's report. Someone somewhere has reason to whitewash the whole thing. I may be a Senior Citizen but I'm not senile and I want to read the truth.

Good luck on your book.

Sincerely,

Lillian E. Weber

Dear Mrs. Weber,

Thank you for your kind and thoughtful note of the 24th. about my appearance on the Alan Burke show. It means much when people are willing to take the time to be encouraging. Your questions are good and proper, and I have no doubt that before long there will be answers to all of them, at least all that can still be answered.

In order to save you the extra cost, I'm enclosing your copy of WHITEY herewith, and I'm returning your stamped envelope so you can use it again.

We, of course, are happy to mail books out, either to individuals or bookstores. If any of your friends are interested, we can mail the books to them. But WHITEY, although it is unusual for a private printing, is stocked by all the major distributors and local bookstores should have no trouble getting it as the usual trade arrangements.

Again, thank you for your appreciated letter. Including postage, the cost is $5.05.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
