

2/28/67

Mr. Jim Tuverson
WBZ
Soldiers' Field Road
Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Tuverson,

Norman Ross of WJZ has just left after filming a show. He asks I send you these book, which I'm more than happy to do.

Norm says you'd like me to go to Boston, which I'll be delighted to do in the near future but cannot right now. I'm rushing to meet deadlines that are past.

I've had to turn down TV offers, which I cannot afford to because we have not yet gotten out of debt, to meet my commitments. That's why Norm came out today. But I can do a show for you on radio almost any time you want, by phone. I suppose I've done two dozen since the New Orleans thing became public. This comes from my work alone, especially chapter 11 of the first book (to be repinted in SAGA next week of the week after) and chapter 7 of the second.

Should you or the people on your radio end want to do this, I need no rehearsal. Just be sure one of my phones is free before you plan it. We live in the country and share each line with seven others, including the volunteer fire department.

If you have any questions, phone me. And if you want me to background you on what is going on, I'll be glad to tell you what I can.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg