Dear Mike:

More rushed than usual. Working on three books at once.
Glad your reaction was good. The people at WNAC were then and have since been wonderful.

I knew Steve was leaving, but that is all.

Again thanks for everything.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Harold,

March 5, 1967

Thanks again for your visit. I think this was one interview I shall not forget for a number of reasons. Hope that you can make it back at a time when we can show you a bit more hospitality.

Needless to say, the listeners are still commenting and asking when you will be back, especially in light of the fast-breaking news stories from New Orleans.

I edited a portion of the tape the other night and used that segment for re-run, but I have sworn to myself that I will sit down and go through the entire show to get a production suitable for complete replay.

How did things go at WNAC? Fred Gale is apparently taking over from Steve Allison. I had assumed that Fred was the one with whom you would do the program in Boston.

Well, take care, do keep in touch, and let me know if you plan that April tour. Thanks again for the wonderful show and the opportunity to meet you face to face.

As always,

Mike
