BIOGRAPHICAL BACKGROUND

Harold Weisberg has written 4 books on the Kennedy Assassination... "Whitewash-Report on the Warren Report", the first book to attack the Warren Report; "Whitewash II-FBI and Secret Service Coverup".... "Photographic Whitewash-Suppressed Kennedy Assassination Pictures"...and the recently published " Oswald in New Orleans...a Case for Conspiracy with the CIA".

Weisberg, prior to World War II, wrote a number of articles exposing East business fronts in the United States, which resulted in many connections. During World War II, he served with the U.S.S. as an intelligence and political analyst. Following the war he continued his writing and when the Warren Report on the Kennedy Assassination was made public, he read it thoroughly and began to question its validity. He was the first to write a book attacking the findings. When James Garrison, District Attorney of New Orleans, began his investigation into the matter, Mr. Weisberg was the first he contacted and has been associated with the investigation ever since. Many have said that Weisberg is "the man behind the whole Garrison investigation".
