Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This will confirm your appearance on the "Phil Donahue Show" on Friday, January 12, 1968.

The Phil Donahue Show is a one hour, live color telecast originating weekdays at 10:30 A.M. from the studios of WLW-D, Avco Broadcasting. The show is telecast throughout southwestern Ohio, including the Dayton-Cincinnati markets.

Our program allows viewer participation via telephone in which the callers ask questions and make comments to the guest on a ten second tape delay.

Our budget does not allow for an honorarium, however, as we discussed on the telephone, you will arrange your own air accommodations and bill us for same. Might I mention that we will need a receipt of your airline reservation for our Accounting Department in order to make payment. In Dayton, Ohio, if you would care to use a Yellow Cab, WLW-D has a charge with their company which would alleviate the necessity of obtaining a receipt from the cab company.

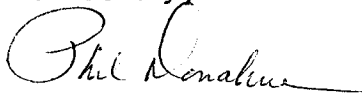

Reservations have been made for you at the Statler Hilton Inn Hotel for the night of January 11, 1968, in Dayton, Ohio. As you will be continuing on to Indianapolis, WLW-I, for

Please forward information of your flight arrangements to our office so we will have your time of arrival, etc. If you have any questions regarding your appearance, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,
