Happy Hawaii

On The Run: Comsat, experimenting with the new Pacific satellite, has decided on an experimental telecast tomorrow of the Notre Dame-Michigan State game to Hawaii. . . . Did you hear that wonderful definition of a born loser? . . . It's the fellow who takes LSD and hallucinates "Gilligan's Island" . . . If you were disappointed by WTTG-5's tiresome "Warren Commission Report" last Saturday, you should know that WETA-26 will have a special on Thursday, Dec. 1, on the same subject, but with investigators for the Warren Commission on the panel . . . The only repeater on the two panels will be Mark Lane, author of "Rush to Judgment"; the plus, for channel 26, will be the presence of Burt Griffin and Wesley Liedler, assistant counsels to the Warren commission, as well as Richard Revere, of the New Yorker.

Mailbag items include a critical dissent by Robert Keilar on Maxwell Anderson's "Barefoot in Athens" . . . "Your criticism of the satire and a fine actor like Peter Ustinov," he writes, "I just can't stand without voicing my opinion. If you will note that when you do have time to watch TV, that there are programs on the air and sponsored by big organizations for adolescents and idiots. Mr. Harrison — I am a man of 40 years old. I don't claim to know much about satires or
