

NY 11/9/67
Talks, Sports, Special Events

10:15 A.M.-3:15 P.M. WOR-AM: Martha Deane. Debate on the Warren Commission report. (For the Commission: Louis Nizer, lawyer, and Charles Roberts, Washington correspondent for Newsweek magazine. Against: Leo Savage, author of "The Oswald Affair," and Harold Weisberg, author of "Whitewash.")

11:05-11:30, WNEW-FM: Profile. James Earl Jones discusses Negro actors.

11-11:55, WNYC-FM: Spoken Words. Poems of Shelley, read by Patrick Garland and Gary Watson.

12:10-1 P.M., WNBC: Mimi Benzell is host to Hildegard's entertainer.

12:15-12:55, WCBS: Talk of New York. Kenneth Banghart, C.B.S. correspondent, talks about his upcoming trip to Europe.

2:30-2:55, WNYC-FM: People and Ideas. "How Italy Was Betrayed During World War II," Peter Tompkins, former C.B.S. member.

3:05-3:30, WNEW-FM: Profile. An interview with Lord Donald Soper, member of the British Parliament.

3:15-4, WOR-AM: Faye Henle. "Probing the Internal Revenue Service," with William Surface, author of "Inside Internal Revenue."

7:07-7:12, WQXR: New York Times Correspondents View the News. Evert