Dear Anna Marie,

Thanks you VERY much for the two packages mailed yesterday.

I'm finishing up a chapter to a book I'm making of a lengthy article I wrote some time ago, Senator Russell Dissents and anxious as I to read what through your great kindness I have, I'd best finish this chapter first or I'll mix myself up.

Senator Russell had two basic disagreements/questions of which he told me. One was his absolute refusal to agree to the single-bullet theory, the other is as he put it, "I'm satisfied they have not told me all they know about Oswald." This is the part I'm working on.

So what you sent may fit and it may also get me mixed up if I do not finish this draft first.

I do appreciate this very much! From a glance I'll be putting what came from each box in a separate file folder.

The postage alone was $7.00, <sup>so</sup>/~~50~~ with thanks again and best wishes, here is our check for $50.00. If that does not cover your costs, please let me know.

With hopes for a fine holiday season for all,
