

Dear Kevin, Walsh

2/20/93

I was able to get the student to come and copy the Sartor file. However, having been up since 12:30 a.m., I was taking a nap. But I'm ysre a credit will be due you.

In order not to delay getting this to you we'll go into the credit later. This being Saturday, and with the ice I'm not checking the mailbox often, not only may the mail be gone by the time I can make the package, it would go to Baltimore. Experience indicates that is better avoided. So I'll send this in the mail that is picked up on Monday.

I've just skimmed what was in the file that I've not looked at in years. I do not know whether it was in this order when I got it or if someone used it and left it that way but I do want to add to the page of my scribbled notes. I should say she copied it as it is.

Some of the names no longer mean anything to me. Some are connected with the union. Or then were. Mike Wurf. He was not only not responsive when I wrote him he referred my letter to their stuffed shirt of a lawyer, Zwerdling. And Zwerdling gave the correspondence to the FBI. It is in the released MURKIN file. This is to say that the self-important fink was playing ball with the FBI. Zerdling. I do not know about Wurf.

The Zwerdlings of the legal profession remind me of Shakespeare's wisdom about the lawyers. He said "all" but there are a few like our Jim so I omit that word.

If Ciampa was not from the union, sent to Memphis, that is the name of the lawyer the union then had. I think Jim was with me when I saw him and he was unhelpful and unwilling to be helpful in any way.

Chip and his Unsolved Mysteries crew were here yesterday. They'd interviewed Jim and Blakey. I think I may have anticipated what Blakey spouted off and if they use what I said he won't like me a bit more.

Not that I want ~~him~~ to!

I do not recall the purposes for which I scrawled these cryptic notes. It may have been prior to speaking to Scudder, to ask her about.

Flannery was then the name of a DJ lawyer later a judge.

Chip said he'd heard the Sartor death was going to be reopened. If I remember what Scudder told me about it correctly, it was probably from his addition to drugs and alcohol. I do not recall that she had any questions about his death.

I did misunderstand what you'd said DeLoach said. My understanding surprised me because I knew very well that HQ had ordered the SAC in Atlanta to file an affidavit denying there had been any black bag job. Was his name Hitt?

Chip also told me that the Archives had released the one executive session they had withheld from me and that Jim has it, If he does, will you please ask him to have a copy of it xeroxed and to send me the bill? If you have not read it I am certain the real reason for withholding it was to protect Ford, not Redlich.

If there is a special pixie for shamrocks, please use your influence to have one visit us

Best Harold

Dear Harold,

Cartha Deloach did not admit to a black bag job on Ray's Atlanta room. I told you that he simply stated "not to my recollection". (Beware of wine before noon, Harold).

Thank you for your offer of the Sartor file. Enclosed is a check for $40.00 to cover copying, mailing, and your Assistant's time. If it costs more, please advise; if it is less, perhaps you could include material on McFerrin.

Concerning a previous matter, enclosed is a check for $150.00 for the generous quantity of books you sold me. As you know, this is a charitable donation I am making to the Assassination Archives and Research Center. They need a good supply of your published works. See the attached receipt itemizing books received.

Best wishes. Give my warm regards to Lil.

Sincerely,

Kevin Walsh
