MANAGING EDITORS

Last call for advance registrations of the APME convention in San Diego. Up to Nov. 1 you may still register by sending your check - $35 for editors, $15 for wives - to Wendell Phillipi, Indianapolis News. After that you can still register on arrival at the convention. It starts Nov. 15 with a reception; business sessions begin Nov. 16 and end Saturday noon, Nov. 19.

Additional prime segments of the business program have been firmed up since the Sept. 19 wire note. They include the following:

The panel on "The Image of the Newspaper; What Does the Public Think of Us Now?" includes Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles and past APME presidents George Beebe, Michael J. Ogden and J. Edward Murray.

Jack Valenti, president of the Motion Picture Assn. of America, speaks on "Movies and the Newspaper."

"Fair Trial? Free Press?" panel discussion with Grant B. Cooper, member of the American Bar Association's Advisory Committee on Fair Trial-Free Press, and former APME president Sam Ragan, member of the ANPA committee studying the subject.

Panel on the Warren report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, with two critical authors, Edward Jay Epstein and Mark Lane, paired against two lawyers who were members of the Warren Commission counsel - Joseph A. Ball and Wesley J. Liebler.

If you don't have your room reservations yet, write to Carlton Lichty, Hotel Del Coronado, Coronado, Calif.
