P.S. I decided to let other things go and completed reading Hunt's book. I presume you did not have time to read it yourself. I do not know what you know of the fact or period of which he writes. It is a fairly completely dishonest work, a trashing of history. I have a fair recollection and can detect the dishonesties and their deliberateness, even allowing for the distortion inevitable with his paranoid views of life and politics. Someone who read and marked these proofs earlier did have some knowledge of the period. However, I add this P.S. to let you know, if you didn't read the proofs, that he does mention enough names for leads on him if it interests you, full names. Assuming he uses real names, not aliases. I underscored all the names, I think, so if you want to do anything, I can, without taking a great amount of time, provide what would probably be most of them.

He added reference to The Watergate - one! A footnote on Fiorini saying he was later a "Watergate defendant", without saying what Watergate is! He does not say this of himself or of Barker.
