Mr. Datid Ignatius, editor, Outlook Washington Post 1150 15 -t., M washington, D.C. 20071

Dear Mr. Ignatius.

If you are not in a hurry and are willing to settle for what they give you should be able to get information on Overseas news under FOIn from the CIA, FBI and military intelligence agencies, without a lawyer. Maybe State, too. But phrasing the information request can be important. CIa has OSS and COI records. OHA my also have figured in Congressional investigations. If I can help, let me know.

The Fibrary of Congress may have at least published information on it.

When I suggested asking the Inti-Defamation beague - meant the national office, in New York.

Perhaps British reporters can suggest British sources.

There were many U.S. forces that had, whether or not intended, pro-Nazi effect. One was the Dies UnAmerican committee. It did nothing to investigate of expose pro-Mazi and native fascist activities until its effort to entrap me kicked back and they were required to take the testimony of William Pudley Telley of the Silver Shirts. Gangs list Pelleys were numerous. This changed a bit, as I remember, but not all that much, after Hitler attacked Poland.

In equating all liberals and anti-Mazis as Communists the Dies committee was helping mitler.

You referred to that as a remarkable period in Washington. It also was in other, simple, everyday human ways, of ordinary people Trying to help the overnment and each other. I don't know how it is now but then almost anyone in Oshkosh who knew someone who knew someone in Washington went to Washington with some hope of help in getting; started and perhaps a temproary place to stay.

I'm sure my wife remembers some of the strangers knocking at our door, from union organizers to Broadway stars in road shows looking for a decent home-cooked meal.

quite a few of those often-talented people did help the country very much. Old timers may have quite a few such stories.

Members of the house and penate, who them had smaller offices and staffs, often were more informal and accessible. A half-dozen Congressmen threw me quite a party the day - beat the Dies committee's entrapment effort by getting its agent indicted and convicted. One of them even made up two songs and sang them. It was that kind of town then. (He was part Finn, part In Wish)

In mentioning my work on the political assassinations I forgot to tell you that I'm not a conspiracy theorist, didn't advance any such theories in my seven books, and instead have made a study of how our institutions worked in those times of great stress and since then.

The glad you are interested in that era. -t would be good for our younger people, thich means far and a way most of us, to know more about it.

rlease excuse my typing. I must keep my legs up and type with the machine to the side. It also puts my eyes too close to the keyboard. The name of the head of one of the more influential anti-FDR groups I could not remember is ouett chouse. It mys have the harold Weisperg been the wealthiest. M. Mobert Rogers also organized Eggheads for disenhower.

He phoned 10/20 and we talked for a while. He is interested in that era, particularly in some aspects of foreign intelligence, and I mentioned some pro-Nazi influences and how high they went.
