

Larry, if the various published reports of the continuation of payments to those charged in Watergate and at least one not charged are true- and let's assume for the sake of thinking that they are -and if the four Cubans were to be on fairly safe ground in Sirica's substitute for a voir dire, then the Mexican laundry is but the first of many, the purpose being to isolate the real source from the ultimate recipient. Question: can this have been the explanation for that $10,000 Dorothy Hunt had with her? None of the others can be believed, nor can the alleged reason for denying it to Hunt. And I'm still looking for a reason for his super-speedy trip to and from Chicago, for its brevity seems to eliminate the reason given, as does the fact of Carlstead's identification, of the body, alleged, that is. I have not seen the two Newsday stories. I think these guys are reverting to Cubano. They are already split and will split more. They are all crazy, so each has valid basis for calling the others crazy. I've known some of them. Crazy as we use it in the US is flattery for them. St. George is worse than crazy, so I visualize a new split over him and because the others will be jealous of Fiorini-Sturgis, the money he will get and what to them will be fame. The craziest thing is that they were trusted. Wait until some of them find out more of what St. George will say! I also know a little about him and can imagine. ... It is my notion that those paying these guys off have something to worry about after the trial is over. They now have immunity. The moneybags also had to worry, if they were not irrational, about the easiest means, through the wealthier Cuban refugees. They all blab and boast. HW 1/19/73
