

Dear Harold and Fil,

Sorry, I've been out of touch and so busy. Jay time is never too pleasant a period. I've been working seven days a week, on top the hepatitis C. Remember this in the fatal or rather can be fatal version of the four known hepatitis viruses, but the only three months of chemotherapy its getting more viable or maybe I've just adapted. God, I hope the two of you are coping and are able to be together as much as possible. I will be able to help you on the need in the not too distant future! I've just got behind weather wise and ~~not~~ medically. I do look forward to hearing some more → anecdotes about the →

J.F.K. researcher covered! incidentally I am banned out on reading, calling, or faxing on this subject for awhile I really have turned over

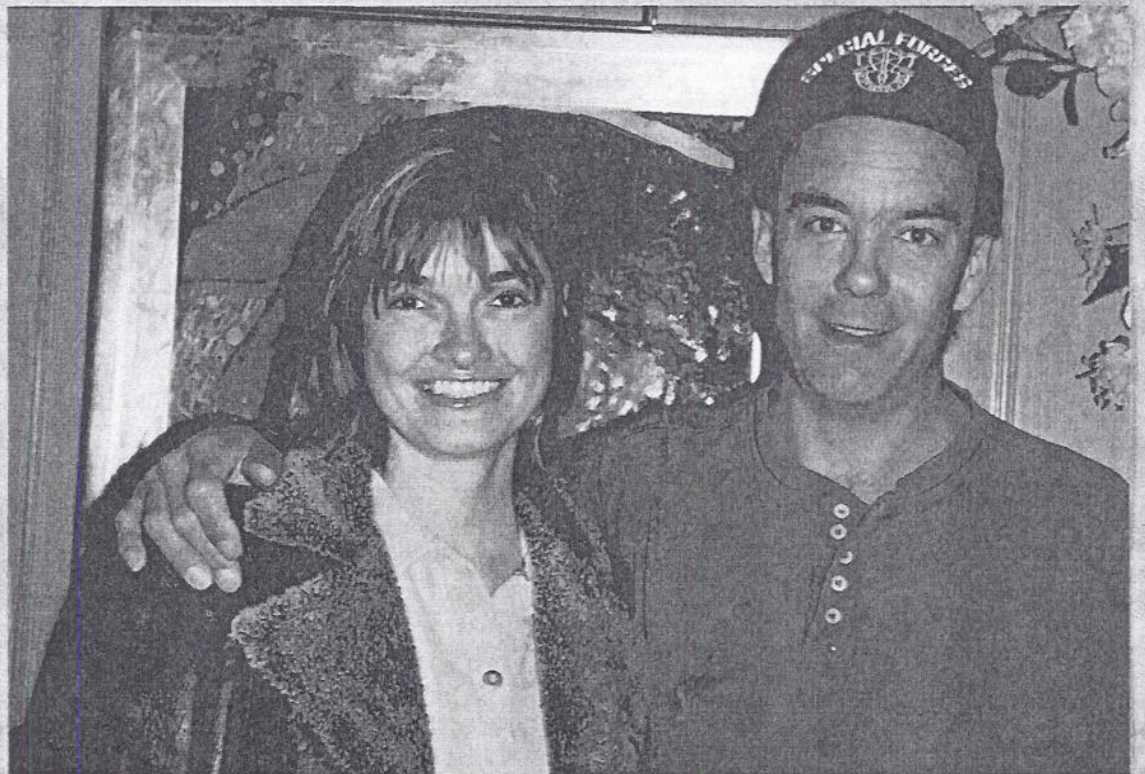

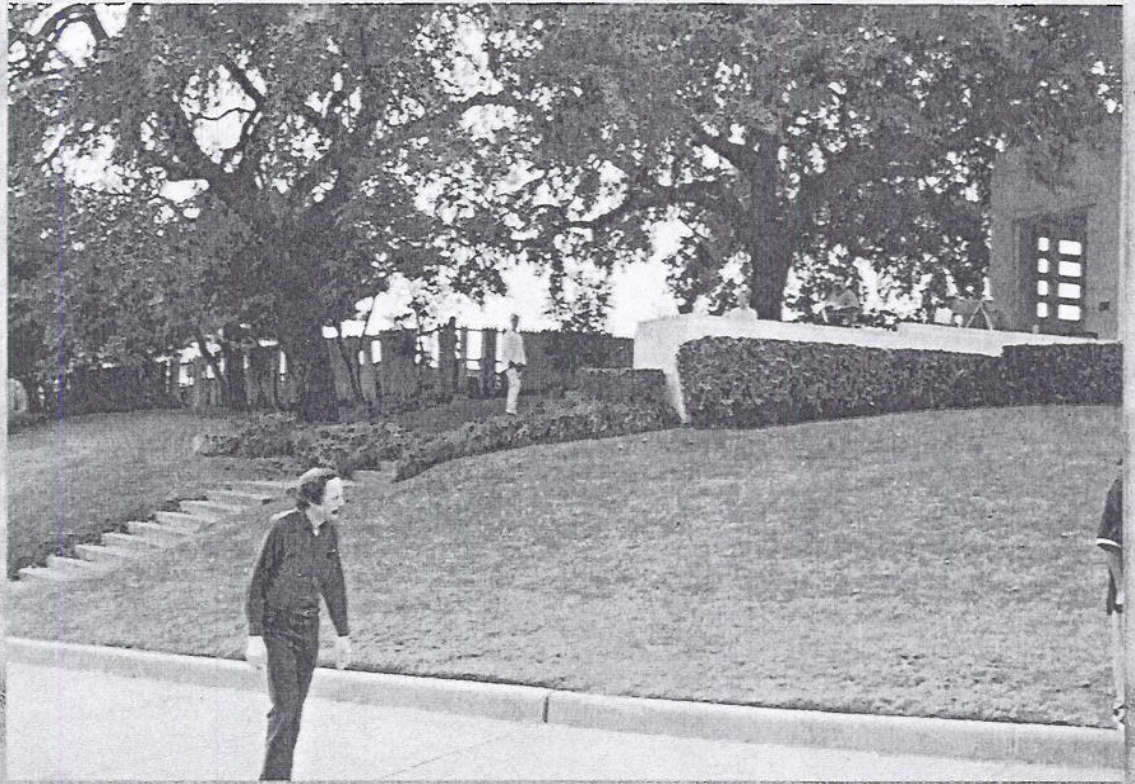

I've been in here since last Thursday.

Some distaste full information in relation to this baffling smoke and mirrors J.F.K.

thing. So many people are so full of shit, mostly on the Texas side. Yet I still spend $700.00 in telephone bills in Dec. January.

I can still justify somewhat, this of session with this Quisic somewhat pointless
