

1/22/68

Dear Dr. Sacht,

I have heard nothing further from the magazine.

The Kennedy assassination Inquiry Committee was formerly the New York branch of the national Citizens' Committee of Inquiry, whose headquarters were in Los Angeles. It is run by someone named Brent Gough, about whom I know little. I met him once.

I have no reason to doubt the seriousness of his purpose, I saw him the end of October. He then told me of his plan to arrange for an off-Broadway theater to present the "critical". The second one is scheduled for tonight. It includes Vincent Salandria, Thompson and Richard Sprague, who has done very well in his work on the pictures.

Gough asks me to be there 2/19, which may not be possible, and 2/26. It is possible he asks me on the 13th and I forget the date, knowing I'll be away then. If you would like to know more about Gough, besides Vincent and Ned, who you may not know, Sylvia Wagner might be able to tell you. I think I'll see you on his first program.

But I hope we meet soon.

I'll leave 2/1 and return about 2/18-19.

Sincerely,

Harold Geisberg

P.S. One of my regular correspondents, who has the 26 volumes, points into Roy Askeham's testimony and other "chance" evidence that the rear head wound was an upward shot. Have you any opinion?

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for having sent me a copy of the G.S.A. - Kennedy Family Agreement. I am glad to have it in my files.

Your comments regarding the possible tampering of your mail are interesting. I shall perhaps make inquiry locally concerning the envelope that you returned to me from my previous correspondence.

I hope that the magazine that has expressed an interest in your autopsy material follows through. I should certainly like to see this aspect of the total problem receive more emphasis and explanation on a national, full-scale basis.

Incidentally, could you tell me what you know about the "Kennedy Assassination Inquiry Committee"? I have been invited by them to appear on a program in New York on Monday, February 12 - perhaps that is the same program that you have been invited to? If so, then I shall look forward to meeting you at that time.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., LL.B.
