

3/21/71

Dear Cyril,

More than the usual haste in response to and thanks for your letter of 3/15.

I've just returned from New York, whence I went with a sore foot, but in 2½ days there did some quite successful investigating, taped a TV confrontation, and then, on the last afternoon and evening, did four radio shows. It was a busy time.

Percy Foreman was supposed to confront me on TV, flew to New York for it, got to the studio, threatened them and me, and turned and flew back to Houston. But his threats were taken seriously, the station got scared and then dishonest, and is now to present an apparently unopposed government case next week, but I've demanded to be in opposition.

Hectic times. Dirty, too.

But I think if they pull this, we'll have enough of a holler to make them sorry and perhaps perform acts of repentance. There are not a number of black Congressmen, and they should all have copies of the book by now. I also have evidence not in it, I think close to completely exculpatory in nature. I'll not use it yet.

I still don't have copies of the book yet! What a way to run a business!.

And I couldn't get the publisher to do anything about the Foreman copout, which would have precluded this new development and might have frustrated the dirty editing.

Your letter is very good, Thanks. Wish I thought there was some show or shows that would be worth the cost of going out there so I could have time to fill you in on many things. But I don't know what, if any, budget has been set for appearances. If there is to be even an ad, I've not been informed.

Best ,

Dear Harold:

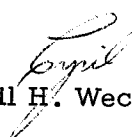

Thank you for your informative letter of 9 March 1971.

I really don't think that it should be necessary for me to spell out my intentions vis-a-vis the JFK and King assassinations. Obviously, if there is anything that I can do in a legitimate and professional manner from the standpoint of a professional forensic pathologist and medical-legal expert, you may be assured that I will do it to the extent that time and energy permit. I shall not hesitate to express my opinion, and to point out errors and defects in post-mortem protocols and other scientific investigations.

Keep me posted.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.
