Re: My telegram of this morning

Dear Mr. Beman:

The hearings are just about ready to be printed but I am holding them up so that the Union officials who were at the convention might be contacted.

If you can possibly get what orders you can to me by the end of this week or next Monday it will expedite matters.

The procedure we will have to follow will be this: after I receive all orders I will have to draw up a list and send it to the printing office. The printing office will write to those who have ordered copies of the hearings and tell them what the price will be. Then, of course, purchasers will have to send the money to the printing office.

This will all take time but we are very anxious to have the printed copies out before our next set of hearings begin.

Thank you very much for your help.

Yours truly,

Harold Weisberg, Editor
Subcommittee of the Committee on Education & Labor
