			ID cont'd: right away. Now, he's gonna tell Jack himself what ta do.
			CM: Um hum.
			ID: But, but we're movin' real good. Jack's cooperating with me.
			CM: He is?
			ID: Yes. But he didn't tell me about...
			CM: I was gonna give him a call because somebody say he might have ta go get operated next week.
			ID: Well, he told me he's takin' pills for that thing, you know?
			CM: Yeah.
			ID: Bu, ah...
			CM: Is he walkin' with a cane?
			ID: Yeah, very bad.
			CM: Yeah?
			ID: He looks like death warmed over.
			CM: No kiddin'?
			ID: Yeah and I'm sure I told him my father-in-law had that hip replacement and Congressman Delaney had too. It isn't that serious, but if he listens ta his old lady, he'll drop dead.
			CM: Yeah.
			ID: You understand what I tell ya. He looks like death warmed over.
			CM: No kiddin'?
			ID: He's takin' pills to cure it. Well, she said go to get an operation in Switzerland. What the hell do they know that we don't know in the United States? You know?
			CM: Yeah.
			ID: Anyway, but you call him up.

			ID cont'd: And he's takin' pills that...
			CM: Well, I'd like to know what he's gonna do with this appeal, that's the government appeal. What I like ta know what he's gonna do.
			ID: Why don't you ask him if, he doesn't know I talked to you and you don't tell him I have, but you call him then call me back.
			CM: All right.
			ID: Cause I hafta see him. He's gonna give me parts of that letter, you know, that he was afraid of.
			CM: Yeah.
			ID: Why should I ro-ruin my good name at this stage. I said what good name. You made your name helpin' people.
			CM: He made a name with me. (laughs)
			ID: Listen, I told him I was gonna send him a bill for $50,000 for that article in Readers Digest.
			CM: $50,000, eh? Yeah.
			ID: Son of a bitch. I know that.
			CM: Shit, ah,
			ID: When a guy gets that way, you know, he's sick in the head too.
			CM: Yeah, well people get like that.
			ID: Now call me back, ask him what he's gonna do and call me back.
			CM: Yeah.
			ID: Cause I'm gonna see him and just ask him what he's gonna do and will you call me back. I'll wait right here.
			CM: Yeah.

			ID: Cause we don't wanna leave no loose ends...
			CM: He didn't give ya the letter though for the appeal.
			ID: No, he's gonna, he has ta ask Weissburg for permission.
			CM: Well, I can send ya a copy cause Wheeler sent me a copy.
			ID: Oh, the one, wait a minute. Now is this the letter by Mike, ah...
			CM: (to someone) Get me that letter, appeal letter. Wheeler.
			ID: No, not the appeal letter.
			CM: The one that they say, they say they gonna appeal.
			ID: No, no, no.
			CM: The government say they gonna appeal.
			ID: No, I don't mean that letter. No, he has a letter where the, where the guy on the Assassinations Committee sent him, scared him ta death.
			CM: No, no, I ain't talkin' about that.
			ID: No, I know the one you're talkin' about.
			CM: No, I ain't talkin'.
			ID: No, I don't...
			CM: Well, how can that man on the Assassinations write him a letter like that.
			ID: He had no right to do it. He intimidated Jack. He scared him, you understand?
			CM: Yeah.
			ID: Only assholes get scared.
			CM: Yeah, you're right.
			ID: Send me a copy of the one that you have anyway. I never...
			CM: I'm a put it in the mail right now for you. Yeah, but call him now.

			CM: Yeah, I'm a call him right now. ID: Cause Mario leaves a week from Friday and he wants ta be very helpful. CM: (to someone) No this is not it. This is the Wasserman. Wait a while. I got one for Wheeler I had the other day. Remember I showed... (to ID) All right then, I'll do that and I'll call you back. ID: Yeah, but what we might hafta do, we mighta hafta drop ya from four visits to one and then finish the one, but I'll do anything... CM: I ain't worried about the visits, shit on that. ID: I know what you're talkin'... CM: I ain't worried about it, I'm worried about this. Now, they takin' appeal when the judge told 'em go ahead on and do what they got ta do. ID: Okay, well... CM: Now they wanna appeal, they just keep delayin' it. ID: Well... CM: I'm gonna die or either Jack gonna die. Somebody gonna die, just like the judge told 'em. What y'all waitin' for every, all the witness ta die. But the judge just forgot ta say, but how about the principle the lawyers and the man and me. I'm sixty-nine. Jack is what, sixty-five? ID: Sh..I don't know. He looks like ninety (unintelligible) that cane. CM: All right. I'll talk to, ah...

			ID: Call me back now tell me...
			CM: I talked to your boy. He was in Houston yesterday.
			ID: He's a nice man.
			CM: You know who I'm talkin' about?
			ID: Sure.
			CM: Yeah.
			ID: Okay. As long as he's workin'.
			CM: He wants ta give this money. I said fuck, no, but he's (unintelligible). I said no, you just forget about that.
			ID: Yeah.
			CM: Yeah. I'm gonna talk to him tomorrow mornin' the other man here.
			ID: Well...
			CM: Then I let you know what's goin' on.
			ID: Very good. Now call me after you talk ta Jack.
			CM: All right. I'm a call you back if I get a hol' of Jack.
			ID: I'm waitin' right here.
